

He is Risen! Now What?

Mark 16:9-20

Pastor Brent Whitefield

Introduction: As a postlogue to the story of Jesus' life, death, and resurrection, Mark juxtaposes the believer and the unbeliever in stark terms. He reaffirms the fate of those who disbelieve while giving the believers their marching orders. The final command of Christ is to go, assured of accompanying divine power, and make the gospel known everywhere.

1. What would we expect to be the response of those who hear of the Resurrection?
2. Why do the disciples persist in their disbelief even in the face of credible, eyewitness accounts of Jesus' resurrection?
3. What is the purpose of the miraculous signs given to those who believe?
4. Should we expect to see the miraculous signs described by Mark in our own day, or were they only for the first generation of believers?
5. How would you rate the effort of the church today to preach the gospel "to the whole creation"?
