

THE IDENTITY SERIES // MISSION

1 Corinthians 9: 19-23

Pastor Brent Whitefield

We know what our mission is, but how do we accomplish it? Paul here explains the lengths to which he goes to win people with the gospel message. It represents a radical denial of self in service of our unbelieving neighbor. The unwillingness of the modern Christians to be “all things to all people” is one of the reasons we do not see more fruit in our day.

Being all things to all people01.*02.*03.*04.

Identity
[A Series on Who We Are at Northpoint]

1. In the context of this passage, what does it mean to be “weak”?
2. How does the example of Christ entering into our world help us in understanding the “all things” principle?
3. What is our guide in determining how far is too far in being all things to all people?
4. Does Paul suggest here that we should pretend to be something or someone we are not?
5. What are the blessings of the gospel spoken of in v. 23?
6. What are some practical ways that we as a church can do more to be “all things to all people”?

Identity
[A Series on Who We Are at Northpoint]